100M Course:

The 100M Practice Heats are free of charge and highly recommended for athletes who wish to practice before participating in a qualification heat. This is an excellent opportunity to familiarize yourself with the course and improve your performance.

Athletes who make it to the Quarterfinals, Semifinals, or Finals must qualify through earlier Qualification heats. Please monitor the leaderboards closely to confirm whether you've made it to the next round. Qualified athletes will be expected to report for their assigned heats promptly.
